The 1891 issue of the Steuben County Directory shows William and Jane Brooks lived on Jasper Street in Woodhull, Steuben, NY. William was listed as the town constable.

FROM WILLIAM MALCALM BROOKS, SON OF WILLIAM R. BROOKS II

I am inserting here a story about William R. BROOKS II. The details are known by both Wilda BROOKS SAYRE and I. We disagree on one point, which I will mention later.

In 1932, a woman by the name of Ella Mary TAGGART RUMSEY came to our home in Woodhull, Steuben, NY. After sending my brother Bob and I outside, the subject of her visit was explained. Of course, Bob and I went around and sneaked back into the kitchen where we heard the whole discussion. Ella, as I will use hereafter, had been to see a Frank PARKS, then Woodhull Town Clerk. She was looking for her father. Mr. PARKS told her that he could not tell her who her father was, but for her to go see Will BROOKS and he could tell her. Will was reluctant to do so, but eventually admitted that he was Ella's father. We later learned that, at the age of 17 or 18, he was involved with a girl by the name of Caroline EDWARDS. As I remember the story, he married her. Wilda SAYRE thinks that he did not marry her. However, she was pregnant. Her folks separated them and she was taken away from Woodhull. My father, William R., never saw her again, nor had he seen Ella until that day.

Ella's mother (Caroline) eventually married a man by the name of TAGART and Ella never knew any other father.

Ella married Frank RUMSEY, raised her family and shortly before her death Ella's mother told her daughter the story and made her promise she would find her father, which she did.

From that year, 1932, until he died in 1937, he kept in contact with her. Frank RUMSEY was a professional broom maker. They had three children, Richard RUMSEY, John RUMSEY and Agnes RUMSEY. I went to their home often. Ella attended her father's funeral in 1937 and even after that I went to their home. For a while, they were in Waverly, New York, and then Cortland, New York. I contacted Ella's grandson in 1989. Frank and Ella are dead as well as their three children. The RUMSEY Hand Made Broom company is still in existence in Cortland.

Caroline is buried at Groton, Tompkins, NY.

Marriage Notes for JENNIE ENSIGN and WILLIAM BROOKS:

May I insert here the story as told by them to their children - a brief romance resulting in a marriage lasting 35 years, which ended only when death separated them. For a number of years, our father drove the horse drawn stage between Woodhull, Steuben, NY and Addison, New York - a distance of twelve miles. On a bitterly cold night in mid December, 1902, a young lady boarded the stage to go to Woodhull to visit a sister. She had come from Rochester by train to Addison. As was customary, the driver stopped at the half-way house (which is still standing), to feed, water and rest his horses. The passengers disembarked in order to get warm or whatever. It was there that our father and mother became acquainted. He was 41 and she was 21. Two weeks later, on Christmas Eve, they were married in Addison. Following, are the results of that marriage
