Death of David R. Harris

David R. Harris, Sr., one of the old residents of West Scranton, died yesterday afternoon at his home, 507 North Hyde Park avenue, after a few days illness. On Monday last, he was overcome by the heat while watching some repairs being made to a neighbor's home, and at first, his condition was not considered critical. On Friday, he showed signs of becoming weaker and continued to become worse until the end came yesterday after noon at 4:45 o'clock. Mr. Harris was born in Merthyr Tydil, South Wales, seventy-four years ago and came to this country fifty years ago. He had resided since in this city. He engaged in mining and was employed by the Lackawanna company until he retired some seven years ago. His wife died nearly one year and a half ago. He was a well known citizen and in his younger days took an active part in the local politics. He is a member of the Diamond Mine and Accidental fund.

He is survived by the following children: John R. Harris, superintendent of the Electric light company of Susquehanna; Robert Harris of Carbondale, an engineer of the D.& H.; David R. Harris, Jr., a conductor on the Lackawanna, and Mrs. A.B. Hughes, of Danville, Pa.

The announcement of the funeral will be made later.

Old Resident Died

After Long Illness

Mrs. Mary Harris, wife of David R. Harris sr., at 507 North Hyde Park avenue, died at her home yesterday afternoon at 3:40 o'clock after an illness of several months. Although suffering considerably, she did not take her bed until two weeks ago. She was a patient sufferer. For years, she was one of the best known women of this section of the city. In cases of illness, her advice was sought by many of the friends and neighbors. She was born seventy-three years ago in Merthyr Tydfil SouthWales and came to this country fifty years ago and all that time made this city her home. She was a member of the First Welsh Congregational church.

Surviving are her husband and the following children: John R. Harris of Susquehanna; Mrs. A. B. Hughes of Danville; Robert Harris of Carbondale and David R. Harris of this city.

The announcement of the funeral will be made later.

Laid at Rest

Rev. David Jones of the First Welsh Congregational church, officiated at the funeral service over the remains of Mrs. David R. Harris Sr., of 507 North Hyde Park Avenue, at the family residence on Saturday afternoon. A large number of friends and relatives gathered at the home to pay their final respects to the departed. The many floral designs attested the love and esteem in which she was held. The body was borne to the Washburn street cemetery, where it was laid at rest.

The pall-bears were: Alfred Twining, David Roberts, John Richards, Robert Thomas, James Thomas, William Roberts and James Roberts.

6. ROBERT³ HARRIS, SR. (DAVID ROBERT², ROBERT¹) was born Mar 08, 1873 in Scranton, Lakawanna, PA, and died Jul 1927 in Scranton, Lakawanna, PA⁷. He married SARAH LEWIS Unknown. She was born 1873, and died 1965⁸.

Notes for ROBERT HARRIS, SR.:

Robert died at age 54 in Scranton, PA as a result of being hit by a car. The accident occurred on June 23, ?. He lived at 2202 Wyoming Avenue at the time of his death.

Robert lived in Carbondale at the time of his mother's and father's death.

He was an engineer with the Delaware and Hudson Railroad at the time of death.

He was a member of the Irem Temple in Wilks-Barre, PA, the Consistory in Scranton, PA, Union Lodge of Masons, and the Green Ridge Baptist Church.

ROBERT HARRIS, HURT ON JUNE 23, DIES OF INJURIES WELL KNOWN D. & H. ENGINEER WAS RUN DOWN BY MOTORIST WHILE CROSSING BUSY THOROUGHFARE.

Injuries suffered when he was struck by an automobile while crossing the street in the 500 block of Wyoming avenue on the night of Thursday, June 23, resulted in the death yesterday morning at 4:15 o'clock of Robert Harris, fifty-four, of 2202 Wyoming avenue.

At the time of the accident it was believed that he had sustained lacerations of the head and bruises of the body, but it later developed that he received internal injuries. Immediately following the mishap he was treated at the State hospital and later removed to the Hahnemann hospital where he remained for several days before being removed to his home. He was confined to his bed practically all of the time from the night of the accident until his death early yesterday.

His daughter, Dorothy Harris, aged fifteen, who was injured in the same accident, is reported as improving at the Hahnemann hospital. She is suffering from a fractured leg and bruises of the body. It was believed she was the most seriously injured of the two at the time of the motor accident.

Charles Labella, of 322 Smith street, Dunmore, arrested as the driver of the machine which struck Harris and his daughter, will now be charged with involuntary man-slaughter. When arrested a count of assault and battery with a motor vehicle was placed against him and he was released under bail, to await the outcome of the victims' injuries.

Son Died Two Months Ago

A pathetic incident in connection with the death of Mr. Harris is that his son, Robert Harris, Jr., died just two months ago. Young Harris, interested in aviation and determined to gain fame as a birdman, went to Fort Slocum, N.Y., where he enlisted in the aviation branch of the U. S. army service. Soon after he arrived there an epidemic of spinal meningitis struck the camp and he was stricken ill. His death followed after an illness of but a few days. News of Mr. Harris' death comes as a shock to his wide legion of acquaintances throughout northeastern Pennsylvania, all of whom believed that he was well on the road to recovery following the accident. Mr. Harris was born in Scranton and made this city his home, with the exception of some years he resided in Carbondale. During the past twenty-three years he worked as a locomotive engineer for the Delaware and Hudson Railroad company, and previous to joining the D. & H. service, he was in the employ of the Lackawanna railroad. He was prominent in the affairs of the Brotherhood of Locomotive Engineers.

Mr. Harris was a member of the Irem Temple in Wilkes-Barre, the Consistory in Scranton, Union Lodge of Masons and the Junior Order, United American Mechanics. He was also a member of the Green Ridge Baptist Church. Surviving are his wife, Mrs. Sarah Harris, and two daughters, Hannah and Dorothy, both of Scranton. One sister, Mrs. Hannah Hughes, of Philadelphia and a brother, John R. Harris of St. Petersburg, Fla also Survive.
