

Descendants of John Nichols

Generation No. 1

1. JOHN¹ NICHOLS was born Abt. 1785 in Mass, and died Jun 15, 1873. He married ELIZABETH BETSEY BRACE Unknown in Lyndon, NY, daughter of WILLIAM BRACE and RUTH WHIPPLE. She was born Abt. 1790 in Washington County, NY, and died Jul 10, 1865 in Lyndon, NY.

Notes for JOHN NICHOLS:

From Esther N. Miller, 18 Genesee Street, Apt. 5G, LeRoy, NY 14482.

John and his wife were originally buried in the old cemetery on Main Street in Franklinville, NY. However, due to deterioration of the markers and condition of the cemetery, the remains of those early pioneers were moved to the Mt. Prospect Cemetery in Franklinville. In Section G are the neat rows of those early settlers's graves.

The 1855 Lynson, Cattaraugus, NY census show the following
John Nikols, 70, M, Husband, Mass, Married, Farmer
Elizabeth Nikols, 65, F, Wife, Washington, Married
James Nikols, 10, M, Child, Steuben
Living next door were John & Elizabeth's daughter and her husband
Stephen A. Wood, 58, Male, Husband, Saratoga, married
Betsey A. Wood, 48, Female, Wife, not known
Mary A. Wood, 16, Female, Child, Livingston
Savanna A. Wood, 8, Female, Child, Steuben

Notes for ELIZABETH BETSEY BRACE:

The John Sherman Brace genealogy shows Elizabeth Betsey Brace as the daughter of William Brace II. However, Dorothy Gaston (dottyjg@yahoo.com), after a detailed analysis, believes that Betsey was the daughter of Levi Brace and his wife Joanna.

From Dorothy:

The 1790 and 1800 census for Cambridge twp., Washington County, NY, lists Levi Brace. These census shows they had seven surviving children. In 1800, there were two daughters between the age of 10-16. This is exactly the age group Betsey, who married John Nichols, would be in. Brace genealogist are unable to give two of these girls names. I believe Betsey is one of them.

The 1850 and 1860 census, as well as the 1855 state census for Cattagaugus County, gives Elizabeth, wife of John Nichols of age to be born about 1790. Both of these census agree that she was born in New York State. The 1855 census shows the birth county as Washington.

From Esther N. Miller, 18 Genesee Street, Apt. 5G, LeRoy, NY 14482.

John and his wife were originally buried in the old cemetery on Main Street in Franklinville, NY. However, due to deterioration of the markers and condition of the cemetery, the remains of those early pioneers were moved to the Mt. Prospect Cemetery in Franklinville. In Section G are the neat rows of those early settlers's graves.

Been working on the Elizabeth Brace - John Nichols dilemma. Haven't found much , but the Town historian for Lyndon, NY Catt Co (where John and Elizabeth Betsey Brace were living) sent me a copy of a transcribed copy of the 1855 town of Lyndon census -- its says that Elizabeth was born in Washington County, born 1790 .

So that provides a positive point to your argument ..that she in fact was a Brace. The only thing is it lists her birth year as 1790, not 1777...so will change who her mother was. One of the three.

The clue about the NY state census saying Elizabeth B. was born in Washington County, I like the best.

Lucena Brace was also cited in the 1855 census as born in Washington Co. Her obituary states she was born in Washington County.

Lucena Brace married a Mayflower descendant. The Mayflower people have beaten the bushes regarding Levi and Joanna. They found in the days before Xerox that Lucena applied for Bounty Land for the War of 1812 based on her husband Constant Soul's service at the Battle of Sacket's Harbor. The original has disappeared. I have tried over and over to get a copy from the National Archives. Lucena stated when and where she was married and the identities of her parents & husband. If it can't be found her father will never make it into the DAR Patriot Index.

Another item I just discovered, but am not sure if it's relevant - Levi Brace did not pick up his mail in Cooperstown, Otsego co., NY 4/12/1804. It is possible he left Washington Co. before his death which seems to have happened after 1803.

In the 1800 Cambridge, Washington County, NY, census, a William Nichols is listed with three males:

1 age 0-10

1 age 10-16

1 age 16-26

One of these could have been the John Nichols that married Elizabeth Betsey Brace, who would have been about age 10.

Living next door was a Levi Brace with two females age 10-16. One of these could have been Elizabeth Betsey Brace. This lends support to the theory that Elizabeth was the daughter of Levi Brace and Joanna Cooley, and not William Brace and Hannah Mills.

The 1891 issue of the Steuben County Directory shows William and Jane Brooks lived on Jasper Street in Woodhull, Steuben, NY. William was listed as the town constable.

FROM WILLIAM MALCALM BROOKS, SON OF WILLIAM R. BROOKS II

I am inserting here a story about William R. BROOKS II. The details are known by both Wilda BROOKS SAYRE and I. We disagree on one point, which I will mention later.

In 1932, a woman by the name of Ella Mary TAGGART RUMSEY came to our home in Woodhull, Steuben, NY. After sending my brother Bob and I outside, the subject of her visit was explained. Of course, Bob and I went around and sneaked back into the kitchen where we heard the whole discussion. Ella, as I will use hereafter, had been to see a Frank PARKS, then Woodhull Town Clerk. She was looking for her father. Mr. PARKS told her that he could not tell her who her father was, but for her to go see Will BROOKS and he could tell her. Will was reluctant to do so, but eventually admitted that he was Ella's father. We later learned that, at the age of 17 or 18, he was involved with a girl by the name of Caroline EDWARDS. As I remember the story, he married her. Wilda SAYRE thinks that he did not marry her. However, she was pregnant. Her folks separated them and she was taken away from Woodhull. My father, William R., never saw her again, nor had he seen Ella until that day.

Ella's mother (Caroline) eventually married a man by the name of TAGART and Ella never knew any other father.

Ella married Frank RUMSEY, raised her family and shortly before her death Ella's mother told her daughter the story and made her promise she would find her father, which she did.

From that year, 1932, until he died in 1937, he kept in contact with her. Frank RUMSEY was a professional broom maker. They had three children, Richard RUMSEY, John RUMSEY and Agnes RUMSEY. I went to their home often. Ella attended her father's funeral in 1937 and even after that I went to their home. For a while, they were in Waverly, New York, and then Cortland, New York. I contacted Ella's grandson in 1989. Frank and Ella are dead as well as their three children. The RUMSEY Hand Made Broom company is still in existence in Cortland.

Caroline is buried at Groton, Tompkins, NY.

Marriage Notes for JANE ENSIGN and WILLIAM BROOKS:

May I insert here the story as told by them to their children - a brief romance resulting in a marriage lasting 35 years, which ended only when death separated them. For a number of years, our father drove the horse drawn stage between Woodhull, Steuben, NY and Addison, New York - a distance of twelve miles. On a bitterly cold night in mid December, 1902, a young lady boarded the stage to go to Woodhull to visit a sister. She had come from Rochester by train to Addison. As was customary, the driver stopped at the half-way house (which is still standing), to feed, water and rest his horses. The passengers disembarked in order to get warm or whatever. It was there that our father and mother became acquainted. He was 41 and she was 21. Two weeks later, on Christmas Eve, they were married in Addison. Following, are the results of that marriage
